Calgary Home Builder Receives National Design Award

CALGARY, ALBERTA, March 2, 2009 – Albi Homes Ltd. is thrilled to announce their win at the Canadian Home Builders Association National SAM Awards this past weekend.

The awards ceremony which took place on Saturday, February 28, 2009 in Quebec City, Quebec, is a celebration of award winning designs. Albi Homes proudly took home the award for Best New Single-Detached Production Home between 1,500 sq. ft. and 2,200 sq. ft. for the Bristol 7 show home in the community of Auburn Bay.

“This is a fabulous win for Albi Homes,” commented Allan J. Klassen, President and Managing Partner of Albi Homes. “It’s always rewarding to receive national recognition for our home designs when there are so many remarkable home builders across the country with awe-inspiring designs. It’s an honour to have our people recognized for their outstanding work which has been so well received by our customers as well.”

The National SAM Awards which are held annually saw a record number of entries exceeding 575 submissions. Albi Homes was one of two home builders in Calgary who had the pleasure of bringing home a New Home Award.

The award-winning Bristol 7 is located at 19 Auburn Sound Manor SE in Auburn Bay and can be viewed by the public Monday to Thursday from 2pm to 8pm or Weekends and Holidays from 12pm to 5pm.

Albi currently builds in seven of Calgary’s most sought after communities including Aspen Hills, Auburn Bay, CopperPond in Copperfield, Cranston Exclusives, Cranston Estates, Estates of Elgin Village in McKenzie Towne, and Tuscany Hillside Estates.

It’s all online at AlbiHomes.com!
