The Founding Builders, a group of residential builders, united to advance the dream of a new Trades and Technology Complex at SAIT Polytechnic. Their contributions of $8 million will help change the future of trades and technology education.

The Promising Futures™ fundraising campaign fuels SAIT's bold vision of a 740,000-square-foot Trades and Technology Complex that will allow 8,100 additional students to further their passion for hands-on career training.

Thanks to our generous partners, such as the residential Founding Builders, we're halfway to our Promising Futures fundraising goal of $75 million.

We're grateful for their support.
